Subject: First Appeal under Section 19(1) of the RTI Act, 2005 against deemed refusal and non-supply of information in respect of RTI Application No. 33689/02.09.2026/6581/PIO (Civil)

Sir/Madam,

I submitted an RTI application dated 02.09.2026 seeking specific information from the Dog Management Team of NOIDA concerning the management of stray/community dogs and related matters of public safety and compliance.

However, more than 30 days have elapsed from the date of submission of the RTI application, and neither has the information sought been furnished to me nor has any communication been received from the concerned Public Information Officer (Incharge, Dog Management Noida & Nodal Officer, stray dog of Noida).

The statutory time limit prescribed under Section 7(1) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 has therefore expired. In the absence of any response within the prescribed period, the application is liable to be treated as a deemed refusal under Section 7(2) of the Act.

The information sought is directly connected with public health, safety and security of citizens and also concerns the implementation of the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Suo Motu Writ Petition (Civil) No. 5/2025, including the judgment/directions dated 19.05.2026. Timely access to such information is therefore of considerable public importance.

Accordingly, I hereby prefer this First Appeal under Section 19(1) of the RTI Act, 2005 against the failure of the concerned PIO to provide the information within the statutory period.

I respectfully request your good office to kindly:

1. Admit and dispose of this First Appeal expeditiously in accordance with Section 19(1) of the RTI Act, 2005;
2. Call for the relevant records and explanation from the concerned PIO regarding the failure to furnish the information within the statutory period;
3. Direct the concerned PIO to provide complete, point-wise, certified copies and duly authenticated information sought in my original RTI application dated 02.09.2026, without any further delay;
4. Since the statutory period under Section 7(1) has already expired, direct that the information be provided free of cost in accordance with Section 7(6) of the RTI Act, 2005; and

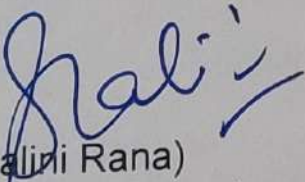

5. Pass a reasoned and speaking order on this First Appeal and communicate the same to me within the period prescribed under the RTI Act.

I further request that, in case any part of the information is proposed to be denied, the concerned PIO may be directed to specifically identify the information being denied, cite the precise exemption provision relied upon, and communicate the reasons for such denial, rather than issuing a general or non-speaking response.

It is also requested that the records relating to my RTI application may be preserved and that the matter may not be delayed on the ground of its having been forwarded from one official to another, as the statutory responsibility for furnishing information under the RTI Act rests with the concerned Public Information Officer.

In view of the serious public-safety implications of the issue, particularly in light of the substantial global burden of rabies-related deaths reported by the WHO, and the continuing delay beyond the statutory period, it is respectfully requested that the First Appeal may kindly be fixed for an early date of hearing.

Yours faithfully,

(Shalini Rana)
